REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED CERTIFICATE OF CORRECTION
UNDER 37 CFR 1.322

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed herewith, please find a "Certificate of Correction" requested for issuance for the above-identified U.S. Patent 7,197,285, issued 27 March 2007.

Also enclosed please find a copy of "claims 22 and 26", from the Application as allowed. Those claims became Issued Claims 1 and 5, respectively.

A copy of the page two of the Patent Examiner's "Notice of Allowance" letter mail dated 11/13/2006, shows an Examiner's Amendment which made several changes to each of those claims 22 and 26. The several changes of the Examiner's Amendment were incorrectly copied into the Patent as issued, by the Patent Office.

The words "providing" and "with" were each part of the original allowed claims 22 and 26, and were apparently left out of a line in each of those claims, after the Examiner's Amendment changes were made by the Patent Office. The changes are now shown on the Certificate of Correction.

Expedited correction is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald N. Halgren

Art Unit 2618

Examiner: NGUYEN

20. (New Claim) The method of providing wireless communication to a personal communication device in an rf restricted environment, as recited in claim 16, wherein said rf restricted environment is a vehicle.
21. (New Claim) The method of providing wireless communication to a personal communication device in an rf restricted environment, as recited in claim 16, wherein said rf restricted environment is an airplane.
22. (New Claim) A method of providing wireless communication to a personal communication device in an rf restricted environment, said personal communication device having a radiative antenna, said method comprising;
- providing a personal communication device with ^{the} a radiative antenna;
 - providing a first antenna within said rf restricted environment;
 - connecting said first antenna to a second antenna mounted on the outside of said rf restricted environment through a computer controlled circuit arranged therebetween;

wirelessly connecting said first antenna with said radiative antenna of said personal communication device within said rf restricted environment;

monitoring communications of said personal communication device at any point between said first antenna and said second antenna;

limiting the amount of time when such personal communication device may be utilized in said rf restricted environment through controls in said computer controlled circuit; and billing for use of said personal communication device within said rf restricted environment.

23. (New Claim) The method as recited in claim 22, of providing wireless communication to a personal communication device in an rf restricted environment, said personal communication device having a radiative antenna, including:

26.(New Claim) A method of providing wireless communication to a personal communication device in an rf restricted environment, said personal communication device having a radiative antenna, said method comprising;

installing an rf energy shield in at least a portion of said rf restricted environment to minimize radiation from said personal communication device from traveling in an undesired direction within that rf restricted environment;

providing a personal communication device with ^{the} ~~a~~ radiative antenna;

providing a first antenna within said rf restricted environment;

connecting said first antenna to a second antenna mounted on the outside of said rf restricted environment through a computer controlled circuit arranged therebetween;

wirelessly connecting said first antenna with said radiative antenna of said personal communication device within said rf restricted environment;

monitoring communications of said personal communication device at any point between said first antenna and said second antenna;
